Time Warner Cable broadcasts details on wanted criminals

By Gary Dinges | Wednesday, July 13, 2011, 03:21 PM

Time Warner Cable has teamed with the Texas Department of Public Safety to offer customers on-demand profiles of the state's most wanted criminals.

The area's dominant cable provider will add details on up to 10 wanted fugitives and sex offenders each month to its Central Texas On Demand channel, with DPS offering rewards in selected cases.

"Time Warner Cable's participation provides citizens additional opportunities to help remove these violent offenders from our streets," said DPS assistant director Tom Ruocco, chief of the Criminal Investigations Division. "Combined with cash rewards from the Governor's Criminal Justice Division, this effort will hopefully generate additional tips that will lead to the arrest of some of the most wanted and dangerous fugitives in Texas."

Time Warner Cable also features Crime Stoppers cases, as well as profiles of missing children, on Central Texas On Demand, channel 1400 in most Austin-area communities.
