Crestina Chavez Promotion

BY BELINDA ACOSTA, 12:38PM, TUE. APR. 19

Time-Warner Cable-owned Your News Now has promoted Crestina Chavez to managing editor of the 24-hour, local cable news channel.

To accept the new duties, Chavez is stepping down from her on-air desk duties as evening news anchor. She will work directly with News Director Michael Pearson to cover day-to-day news in Central Texas and beyond.

The Austin native is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, where she received her degree in Broadcast Journalism. She landed her first job at NBC affiliate KNDU in Washington state before returning to the Lone Star State to work the anchor desk at the former News 8 Austin.

An award-winning journalist, Chavez's most recent accolades include 2010 honors from the Texas Associated Press Broadcasters for Best Documentary for '40 Years of Brotherhood' and Best Series for YNN's annual Breast Cancer series.
